Gonet & Cie SA appoints Christophe Stucki as Secretary General

Geneva, 4 October 2016

Gonet & Cie SA is delighted to announce the appointment of Christophe Stucki as Secretary General.

Christophe Stucki, who will assume his new position on 1 November, has been CEO of the Genève-Servette Hockey Club since February 2011. Over the past five years he has successfully expanded the activities of this iconic club. Previously, he spent more than 15 years in executive positions in the luxury goods sector, particularly at Cartier, having begun his professional career at the consulting and audit company PricewaterhouseCoopers.

For Nicolas Gonet, CEO of Gonet & Cie SA: “We look forward to benefiting from the experience of such a versatile personality as Christophe Stucki, whose managerial skills are recognised in very varied and challenging business sectors.”

“Joining a firm that is as resolutely forward-thinking as Gonet & Cie SA, in a sector that is facing significant challenges, is an exciting new professional challenge for me,” said Christophe Stucki.
